NEWS OF WAR PRISONER

After hearing no news of her husband, WO T. Cecil Dickson, AIF, for more than a year, Mrs T. C. Dickson, of Camberwell, has received information that he was well and fit in March, and was then in Siam. WO Dickson, who was mining editor on THE ARGUS financial staff before enlisting in June, 1940, served in the Middle East with a pioneer battalion, and was presumed to have been taken prisoner by the Japanese in Java.
