

Dove Grey And Blue For Bride

WEBSTER - KINNEAR

A dove grey angora ensemble and a blue velvet toque trimmed with pastel flowers, and a short blue veil, were worn by Miss Dorothy May Kinnear, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kinnear, of Aberfeldie st., Essendon, when she was married yesterday evening at Christ Church, South Yarra, to Lieut. G. N. Webster, 2 2nd Pioneer Battalion, A.I.F., Puckapunyal, by Archdeacon Weir.

The bride was given away by her father and was unattended. The bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Webster, of Craigielea, Stratford, and had Lieut. W. Mitchell as best man. Mr. John Webster and Mr. George Kinnear were ushers. A wedding breakfast was held at Hotel Windsor.

PEARSON - WAKENSHAW

A teal blue ensemble with burgundy accessories was worn by Miss Evelyn Wakenshaw for her marriage to Mr. Bernard Pearson at St. Augustine's Church, Bourke st., recently.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wakenshaw, Homebush, Dandenong, and formerly of Euroa, was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Wakenshaw. The bridegroom, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Pearson, Kiewa, Euroa, had Mr. Albert Murphy as best man.
