

WEBSTER—KINNEAR

An ensemble of angora cloth in dove grey shading was worn by Miss Dorothy May Kinnear for her marriage to Lieut. Geoffrey N. Webster, 2/2nd Pioneer Battalion 2nd A.I.F., Puckapunyal, celebrated at Christ Church, South Yarra, on Friday afternoon by Archdeacon Weir. The frock with a high draped neckline and a short skirt with the fullness drawn to the front was ornamented on the front of the bodice with a quilted floral design and the wrist length sleeves of the edge to edge coat were finished with similar trimming. Soft blue velvet fashioned her toque, which was trimmed in front with pastel shaded flowers and finished with a blue veil. The bride, who was unattended, is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kinnear, Tooronga, Aberfeldie street, Essendon, and the bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Webster, "Craigielea," Stratford. Lieut. W. Mitchell was the best man and Messrs. John Webster and George Kinnear were ushers. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Kinnear held a reception at the Hotel Windsor.
