

PIONEERS' BROADCAST

To-morrow night from 9.35 to 10.35 o'clock, by the courtesy of Maples, who have donated the air time on 14 commercial stations in Victoria, N.E.W., and Tasmania, and Lieut.-Colonel Wellington, O.C. of the 2 2nd Pioneers, a special promenade concert will be broadcast from 3BR Shepparton, the key station of "The Argus" country network, and relayed to all stations regularly linked up in the P. and A. Parade on Sunday nights.

A feature of the broadcast will be a number of items by the battalion concert party and choir conducted by Private Alan Dudley. Private Dudley's brother John, is at present appearing at the New York Metropolitan Opera House.

Latest reports from Shepparton indicate that the recreation ground will be packed. Provision is being made to accommodate 3,000 people.
