At the instance of the Mayor, the Sale Town Council decided to send a letter of condolence to the parents of the late Private J. E. Brodribb. The Mayor said that Private Brodribb had given his life for his country. He was a well known resident and was a credit to his battalion. Cr. Andrews said that the loss of a promising athlete and popular citizen was regretted by the council and the people of Sale.

The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Willochra will be spending a few days' holiday with the Bishop of Gippsland this week-end and will probably assist the Rev. P. P. Taylor at the morning service at St. Paul's Cathedral next Sunday. It is hoped that he will also attend the afternoon service at Seaspray.
