

Molyullah Soldier Believed Killed

Mr H. Westwood Junr., of Molyullah, has received official notification, through the Australian Red Cross, that Private Ern. C. Page, formerly prisoner of war in Japanese hands in Thailand, is now officially declared to be missing, believed deceased.

Private Page enlisted in Benalla four years ago, and left with the 2/2nd Pioneer Battalion. He was taken prisoner in Java in 1941. Prior to leaving the district, he was residing with Mr and Mrs Westwood, and played cricket and football with Molyullah. He was a good sport, and very popular throughout the district.
