WEDDINGS

PAGE—ELSON-SMITH

A gown of magnolia slipper satin was worn by Mary Jean Elson-Smith, only child of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Elson-Smith, of Kilmany Park, Sale, when she was married last night at Christ Church, South Yarra, to Lieutenant Hector Page, A.I.F., Puckapunyal, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Page, of Strathfield, Sydney. Padre F. Kellow, from the bridegroom's battalion, performed the ceremony.

The bride was given away by her father. Over her gown she wore a matching finger-tip length veil. She carried a Prayer Book, from which hung three orchids.

The bride was unattended. Sergeant L. Wilde was best man. A reception was held at the Prince of Wales Hotel, St. Kilda.

MELVILLE—BROWN

At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Gardiner, yesterday evening the wedding was celebrated of Unice Marie Brown, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown, of George rd., Carnegie, and Sergeant John Frederick Melville, elder son of Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Melville, of Burke rd., East Malvern.

The bride was attended by Miss Alva Brown. Mr. Hugh Melville was best man.

WESTON—JONA

News has been received by cable from New York of the marriage on Wednesday of Miss Gwynneth Leon Jona, twin daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Leon Jona, of Huntingtower rd., Malvern, and Mr. Robert Carl Weston. Mr. and Mrs. Weston will live in New York.
