PRESENTATION TO MOTHER OF THREE FIGHTING SONS

A NICE gesture was the presentation by Cobden A.I.F. Welfare League to one of its most ardent members, Mrs J. Cowley, of an enlarged picture of herself and her three sons in uniform.

Handing this to her at a recent social for diggers, Mr F. M. George said members had presented it as a token of friendship and sincere appreciation of a remarkably good citizen. Mrs Cowley had worked very hard for all patriotic funds and especially in the raising of money for comforts for the boys overseas. Above all, she had given her three sons to the country. All regretted that one, Roy, had been killed in action and Hubert was a prisoner of war. They were pleased to see Jim back among his many Cobden friends that night.

Following loud applause from the large gathering, Mrs Cowley thanked members for their thoughtfulness.
